Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya (DAVV), the Grade A+ accredited institution, took out Ahilya Bai's palki with much pomp and show on RNT Campus as the university celebrated diamond jubilee on Wednesday.

The university organised a series of events to celebrate 60 years of establishment.

The university conducted walkathon in the morning on UTD campus.

In the afternoon, a palki, in which a statue of Ahilya Bai was kept, was taken out amid playing of clarinets and chants.

Vice-Chancellor Prof Renu Jain, divisional commissioner Deepak Singh and registrar Ajay Verma, EC member Dr AK Dwivedi, faculty members and non-teaching staff were present.

The DAVV organised diamond jubilee celebration programme in its auditorium. It was followed by cultural event wherein noted dancer Ragini Makkhar performed.
