NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR PROTECTION OF CHILD RIGHTS
नई दिल्ली-110 001

F.No. 26020/05/2023/NCPCR/II/DD/184
Dated: 4/12/2023

To,
Vice Chancellor,

Sir/Madam,

The National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (hereinafter referred to as NCPCR) is a statutory body constituted under Section 3 of the Commission for Protection of Child Rights (CPCR) Act, 2005 to protect the child rights and other related matters.

2. The Commission wishes to highlight a commendable initiative recently undertaken by the University of Delhi, which could serve as an exemplary model for fostering higher education opportunities for orphan children.

3. The University of Delhi, through Resolution E.C. No. 61 dated 03.02.2023, has taken a laudable step by allocating two supernumerary seats (one male and one female) in every academic program at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels to support orphan children. Furthermore, the University has committed to covering their admission and ongoing academic expenses, including hostel charges, utilizing the University Welfare Fund or College Student's Welfare Fund. A copy of the University of Delhi's resolution is enclosed herewith for your kind perusal.

4. The profound impact of such an initiative cannot be overstated, especially in providing vital opportunities for orphan children aspiring to pursue higher education. We believe that initiatives like these exemplify the spirit of inclusivity and commitment to education. Encouraging universities to follow suit would significantly contribute to fostering a more equitable academic environment.

5. We earnestly encourage your esteemed institution to consider adopting a similar resolution, thereby opening avenues for orphan children to access higher education. By emulating such measures, your university can make a substantial difference in the lives of these deserving children.

6. Your support and commitment for promoting educational inclusivity will undoubtedly leave a lasting positive impact. We eagerly await the possibility of your university championing this noble cause.

With Regards,

Yours sincerely,
