

Statute No. 36

AUTONOMOUS COLLEGE

(Under section 6(16))

1. Introduction:

The affiliating system of colleges to the university in the era of globalization and privatization has become cumbersome and with the increase in the number of colleges, it is becoming difficult for the university to attend the varied needs of individual colleges. The colleges do not have any freedom or autonomy to modernize or change their syllabi and curricula or make them globally competent, locally relevant and skill oriented to promote employability. The regulation of university to govern all colleges, irrespective of their strength, weakness, local resources have affected the academic development of individual colleges. Both central and state government are interested to promote quality education at national and regional level. Therefore, autonomy of the colleges is the main instrument in promoting academic excellence in the college.

2. Definition:

An 'Autonomous College' means a Teaching Department of the University, schools of studies or College affiliated to the University registered under 2(f) of UGC list, declared as such by the Executive Council of the University with the concurrence of the state government on the recommendation of UGC.

3. Objectives:

To bring changes with the concept of the new educational policy, the autonomous colleges will have the freedom to:

- (i) determine and prescribe its own courses of study and syllabi, and redesign the courses to suit the local needs, make those courses skill oriented and compatible with job requirements;
- (ii) prescribe rules of admission in accordance with the reservation policy of the state government;
- (iii) promote research in relevant areas and fields;
- (iv) evolve methods of assessment of student performance, conduct of examination and notification of results;
- (v) use modern tools as aids of educational teaching to achieve quality and creativity in Higher Education;
- (vi) promote community services, extension activities, projects for the benefit of the society at the large extent.
- (vii) Fix fees of the courses at their own level subject to the provisions of National Fee Committee.
